Dear Goldman Sachs Corporate Treasury Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Corporate Treasury Funding Execution Trader position at Goldman Sachs, as advertised. With a robust background in market making, risk management, and trade execution across various financial instruments and currencies, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the Funding Execution team in New York.

My career has been marked by a dedication to providing innovative financing solutions and optimizing trading strategies. I have facilitated client and treasury transactions in multiple currencies and managed portfolios within strict risk limits, consistently exceeding various kinds of KPIs. My experience in developing pricing engines and liquidity provision tools, particularly for interest rate derivatives and FX swaps, aligns closely with the responsibilities of pricing and risk management outlined for this role.

I have a strong understanding of economic, fiscal, and monetary policy, which has been instrumental in generating trade ideas to reduce interest expense and capital consumption while improving liquidity metrics. My proficiency in Excel, including VBA, and my comfort with building and managing financial models will allow me to effectively analyze and interpret complex pricing models at Goldman Sachs.

In addition to my technical skills, I bring a strong work ethic and enthusiasm for financial markets. My qualifications are further supported by certifications such as CQF, FRM, SIE, and CFA, which underscore my commitment to continuous learning and excellence in the field of finance.

I am particularly drawn to this role at Goldman Sachs because of the firm's reputation for innovation and leadership in global markets. I am eager to contribute my expertise to the Funding Execution team and collaborate with colleagues across the firm to deliver superior financing solutions to clients.

Thank you for considering my application. I am looking forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the goals of Goldman Sachs. Please feel free to contact me to arrange an interview.

Sincerely,
Arkadiy Klyukin
